f. hans weller, chaiman of the SED in East Borlin, is in close contact with the first Commission.

g. An office for university questions has recently been established in the est Commission. Its chick is blogfried Engher. He was second chairman of the student council at Leipzig University before the end of 1949. In January 1950 he had charge of the preparations of the elections of the student councils in the Soviet Zone of Genamy. The u iversity section is to establish contact with Free German louth (FDJ) university croups in "estern Germany. "agner's liaison men for "estern Germany are Hermann Otto, a student from Mainz (K 51/2 35) or Frankfurt/Kain, and Muth Kolb, a woman student from Frankfurt/ ain.

h. The 'est Com ission is also to exchange persons (see above) including estern berman Communists, who are to move to the S viet Zone of Germany. Such Communists are footdoon by the arty headquarters to move to the Soviet some of deliminy independently, allegedly because every person is needed in Testern Germany.
